Privacy Statement

We reserve the right to revise our privacy policy at any time, without notice and you should check back to this page of our site regularly, to be informed of any changes. To use our website it is not normally necessary to provide Northern Red Squirrels with personal information. However, where the provision of personal data is required to enable Northern Red Squirrels to provide a specific service to the user, such as recording sightings, the details collected will only be used for the stated purpose. Northern Red Squirrels takes no responsibility for the security of your information when you contact and provide information to any groups, charities or businesses listed on our site.

Cookie Policy

We may make use of cookies on this site. A cookie is a small data file that certain websites write on to your computer hard drive when you visit them. You can refuse cookies by turning them off in your internet browser settings.

This privacy policy only covers the Northern Red Squirrels websites at www.northernredsquirrels.org.uk. Other websites are not covered by this policy.

By continuing to use this site you are considered as understanding and agreeing to the contents of this statement.
